JACKSON CANNON

Jackson Cannon is a Guntersville, AL native that has been playing music for practically his whole life. With being exposed to forms of rock, bluegrass, and gospel at a young age, Jackson found his sound in what would be considered modern country music. With such a diverse set of influences such as Ricky Skaggs, Van Halen, and Luke Combs; Jackson was able to create an interesting sound that combines forms of music that usually stands alone.

A previous 102.1 THE BULL rising artist, Jackson has shown incredible movement on social media, on streaming, and in ticketed events. Jackson has grossed over two million streams as an artist, and even more as a featured songwriter. Songs like "Hurting Anyone," "Hallelujah," and "Tecovas" has shown Jackson's undeniable talent as an artists, songwriter, and a name worth knowing in the music industry. Jackson has performed at legendary venues like Mars Music Hall, the Georgia Theater, Rick's Cafe, and the late great Zydeco. After opening for names such as Braxton Keith to a near sold out show in Athens, GA in October 2025, Jackson is set to take the industry by storm. With over thirty-five thousand followers across multiple social media platforms, Jackson is truly living up to the title "rising artist."

Jackson has been writing for over five years now, with over 2,000,000 streams as an artist.

Jackson has performed all around the Southeast, performing at venues like Rick's Cafe, Furniture Factory, and Zydeco in Birmingham.

Jackson has over 35,000 followers across multiple social media platforms, and is growing by the day!
